Greetings to everyone who is at a loose end, there is nothing on the telly, and the only thing left to read is this rubbish.

Well ladies, I hope that special man in your life (or your husband) managed to get you something wonderful for Valentines day. The present Mrs Nash said she would be delighted if I got her the same thing as last year, this had me rather worried as far as I can remember that usually amounts to a bunch of reduced flowers from Tesco's about a week after the event., other shopping outlets are available.

Anyway moving on, did you know one of the cheapest ways to get to London if you don't want to drive is to fly, yes I know this to be true as after extensive research on the internet we found a deal from Exeter to London city airport for just £20, ok we have to be at Exeter for a 6.30 am take off but this just means you get the whole day there instead of spending 4 hours on a train. Here is another fact that won't save your life but is interesting. in nearly all species of birds there eyes are bigger than the brains, this explains so much where Pheasants are concerned.

I realise that some of you are already thinking about the produce show in August, but just to let you know my onions are in and up, and hopefully by the next edition of the monthly periodical I will be found out in the garden, i'm not a good tv watcher.

Anyway will close now as I know you are only waiting to see how appalling the jokes are this month. Best wishes Tim Nash.

The other day I couldn't find my car scraper so I had to us a store discount card to scrape off the ice, didn't really work though, it only got 20% off.

The wife was very upset the other day, someone broke into the house a stole her limbo bar, How low can you go.

Lewtrenchard WI,

Monday, 11th February, 2019.

The meeting began with a welcome from President Cathie Slocombe to our new members.

We then sang Jerusalem, and discussed various upcoming activities including the Tamar Group Meeting and entries for the competition, Spring Council, our June outing skittles and our monthly social coffee meeting at Roadford.

Cathie made an appeal for jumble to be donated for our jumble sale to be held on Saturday, 16th March in the Victory Hall, doors open 2pm with an entry charge of 50p.

Our speaker for the evening was our very own Sylvia Crocker who was giving us a cookery demonstration with the theme of delicious suppers for everyday evening meals.

Sylvia made 4 different dishes, a salmon in puff pastry bake served with a tomato sauce, tomato and pesto clafouti, mushrooms baked with stilton and a Dunster Smokie which was smoked mackerel, chopped ham baked in a cheese sauce.

All were prepared in front of us whilst she kept us entertained with her signature wit and humour. She passed round recipe sheets and at we got to taste them all with our tea.

She passed on some old recipes which she collects, two from a Methodist Chapel book of collected recipes which were 'How to Cook A Husband' and 'How to Preserve Children.'

Mary Edgecumbe gave the vote of thanks for an entertaining, educational and delicious evening.

The competition was 'Bread Pudding', 1st Julie Chick and 2nd Mary Edgecumbe.

Next meeting is Monday, 11th March, 7pm, Victory Hall, Lewdown. Speaker is Julie Turner on shoplifting. Competition is French Knitting and a flower arrangement. ALL WELCOME.

Dangerous Corner

by J.B. Priestley

Directed by Alan Payne

Lewdown Victory Hall

Thursday 11 April to Saturday 13 April 2019

Tickets £8 available from: Tel. 01837 871625

In a change from recent performances the Red Spider Company, based in Lewdown and Lewtrenchard, are in the midst of rehearsals of J B Priestley's "Dangerous Corner" that shocked audiences between the wars when it dealt with subjects such as divorce, pornography and homosexuality. The production deals directly with these issues that being set in an atmosphere of the 1930s brings tension and drama to a gripping production. The plot hinges on an innocent family musical cigarette box (see front cover).

Priestley himself was familiar with divorce having left his second wife before marrying for the third time and among his several affairs was a relationship with Dame Peggy Ashcroft the renowned Shakespearian actress.

The author was almost continuously embroiled in controversy.

A staunch Socialist and oft accused of an anti-Irish prejudice, Priestley was a founder member of CND. His radio programmes in WW2 were second only in popularity to Churchill's own although the latter was reputed to have influenced the BBC to cancel them as he felt them too left wing.

In his declining years he refused a Life Peerage and a Companion of Honour Award but eventually accepted an Order of Merit decoration in 1977 just a few years before his death in 1984 aged 89.

Playground update including information on the land surrounding/adjacent to the Victory Hall. Cllr Metherell went to the V.H. meeting and reported that they were not happy for the use of the car park to be used for patrons of a playground as it may cause problems when the hall could be in use.

Other options for entry to the land behind the Hall were considered, with an option to contact the Cricket club for the use of its entrance and driveway, improvements to the drive maybe required.

Continued.

Cllr Perkins, had put together a 'Communities Together Fund' grant application. Cllr Mott suggested to apply for the grant most urgently before the deadline. Cllr Dawe asked what were the annual costs of maintaining & insuring the playground / equipment.

Defibrillator training – It was considered to enquire if any other organisations had training planned, if not it was resolved to arrange a suitable date at the Victory hall. The printing of promotional leaflets were offered by a parishioner.

Air Ambulance landing site – Official opening, the chairman of the Cricket club had replied that it would be pleased to hold an event at its premises for the occasion. It was thought that the May bank holiday would be a suitable time. Fundraisers, Toby Russell of DAA and the public to be invited. Contact the chair of cricket club to arrange the date. Clerk action.

Lewtrenchard Primary School – highways update. – Highways had recently replied to council questions of suitable wig-wag signs, cost of supply and installation. L.P.S. would start fund raising and it was thought that other organisations would also help in raising £3000 for the lights. It was resolved that council would apply for a grant of £3000 (match funded) from the 'Communities Together' Fund. A total cost of approximately £6000 is anticipated.

Metal detecting around Lewdown and further afield

Two local metal detecting experts get together to share some of their finds and knowledge about the past including the discovery of some ingots of tin at Lewtrenchard which are thought to be Roman or Iron Age. A more informal meeting than usual with an opportunity to look at a variety of finds and ask questions.

January's meeting: 'Disorderly Devon' was an entertaining account of historic unrest by Kevin Dickens. Riots were not uncommon in Devon, and often staged by women, especially on issues to do with food, such as price increases. Sometimes this bore results, as in Tavistock of 1847, where corn prices were lowered as a consequence. Also in Devonport in 1801 the women surrounded the military gaol when their men folk were arrested en masse on some trivial score. Paignton is infamous for its pudding riot in 1859, when onlookers to a feast celebrating the coming of the railway decided to sample the gigantic pudding, not just eating it but hurling it and all manner of substances around. When Exeter's historic 5th November bonfire on Cathedral Green was banned in 1879, rioters barged in with a wagon of wood and forced the police cordon to retreat. The arrival of troops with fixed bayonets could have had dire consequences if the crowd hadn't then dispersed voluntarily. Violence was sometimes officially sanctioned. The former Burton Boys pub in Plymouth derived its name from the Breton (or Burton) Boys, who had fought the Old Town Boys annually, over two days, since 1403 for a large barrel of beer. Punishments in the past were correspondingly violent: a woman was burnt at the stake as late as 1788 in London (for counterfeiting coins). The person hanged for a crime was not necessarily the real culprit. Violence seems to have subsided in the 19th century, from a peak in the middle ages, for several reasons: the rise of a more affluent middle class and their law-abiding example, the emergence of police forces nationwide and migration abroad of the poorest in society during food shortages. We were relieved that Lewdown did not feature in Kevin's examples!

We try to inform members of any alterations but visitors may like to phone 01566 783396 nearer the time, to check there has not been a rare change of programme, or for further information. Charge £2 for members, £3 for non-members to include refreshments.

Planning application – Reference No 3752/18/FUL Construction of steel frame barn for storage and formation of new vehicular access, The Barns, Portgate, Lewdown, EX20 4PZ - Council decision - Support

Reports from Councillors

Cllr Dunn informed council of a Lewdown PC. project to provide a playground in the village. He asked if the council would support the initiative as this would also be of benefit to children of Stowford parish. It was resolved to support the new playground project at Lewdown. Clerk to write a letter of support.

Report from Cllr Edmonds

WDBC & SHDC have announced a proposal for the creation of a regional community bank. Banks would be in larger towns where no banks exist. For more information look at the WDBC website for news updates.

From April 1st WDBC will no longer provide paper copies of planning applications to parish councils, applications can be found on its website. Clerk will in future need to download the application form and some documentation that may be helpful for councillors who may not have internet access.

Recreation Ground

Cllr Bones spoke to a Parishioner who was a committee member of Stowford PCC, he had tried to determine ownership of the land at great expense to himself but unfortunately was not successful in determining ownership. Cllr Bones asked if the clerk could provide any relevant information it had so that she could ask a solicitor that was known to the chair for advice. It was resolved for the clerk to assist in a new investigation of ownership of the ground.

Date and Time of next meeting 12th March 2019, 7.30 at Stowford Parish Council
